

On the occasion of the 40th Anniversary of «Stato e Mercato»
a two-days online seminar

STATE AND MARKET IN DEMOCRATIC CAPITALISM PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

12 November 2021, 3 pm CET

Session 1

Comparative Political Economy and the future of democratic capitalism

VIVIEN SCHMIDT (Boston University)
The Power of Ideas in Capitalist
Transformations and Democratic Pushbacks

PETER HALL (Harvard University)
Capitalism and Democracy: A Dynamic Perspective

CARLO TRIGILIA (Università di Firenze)
Is democratic capitalism bound to disappear?

Chair: GIOVANNA FULLIN (Università di Milano Bicocca)

18 November 2021, 3 pm CET

Session 2

State, market and society: Italian capitalism in a comparative perspective

MARINO REGINI (Università di Milano)
Changing forms of regulation of advanced economies: The study of capitalism during 40 years of «Stato e Mercato»

MANUELA NALDINI and CHIARA SARACENO
(Università di Torino)
Changes in the work-family system and the role of social policies

FRANCESCO RAMELLA (Università di Torino)
Critical junctures as game changers:
The Italian innovation system in times of crisis

EMMANUELE PAVOLINI (Università di Macerata) and ROBERTO PEDERSINI
(Università di Milano)
Italian trade unions and social rights between special and general interest representation

Chair: FRANCA MAINO (Università di Milano)

The seminar is free and registration is now open

In order to participate in the seminar please fill in the form

<https://forms.gle/xU1jP3M79a45VQXg6>