

UNIVERSITÀ
DI TRENTO

TN •
SQUARE

TN • SQUARE

TRENTO SCHOOL OF APPLIED QUANTITATIVE RESEARCH

SECOND EDITION

24-26 NOVEMBER 2021

HEALTH INEQUALITIES, FAMILY AND LABOUR MARKET DYNAMICS

The "Trento School of Applied Quantitative Research" is a multi-year advanced training school on key themes of sociology as analytical, quantitative and interdisciplinary social science, thus involving sociological, economic, demographic, statistical and computer science approaches.

24 NOVEMBER

Anna Baranowska-Rataj (Umeå University)

9.00 - 12.30

Partner's unemployment and health in comparative perspective

14.00 - 18.00

Analysing comparative longitudinal data

25 NOVEMBER

Alice Goisis (University College London) and Wendy Sigle (London School of Economics)

9.00 - 12.30

The health advantages associated with parental marriage

14.00 - 18.00

Using and interpreting demographic measures in quantitative research

26 NOVEMBER

Michael Gebel (University of Bamberg) and Jonas Voßemer (MZES/University of Frankfurt)

9.00 - 12.30

Unemployment, temporary work, and health and well-being

14.00 - 18.00

How to estimate effects using difference-in-differences combined with statistical matching

ORGANISERS

Paolo Barbieri, Giorgio Cutuli, Davide Gritti, Raffaele Grotti, Stefani Scherer, Moris Triventi, Agnese Vitali

CONTACTS

Segreteria del Dipartimento di Sociologia e Ricerca Sociale via Verdi 26 - 38122 Trento
ph: +39 0461 281322 - 1428
segreteria@srs@unitn.it

<https://event.unitn.it/tn-square> | @CSIS_Unitn | tn_square.soc@unitn.it